A number of people ate supper at Lake Killarney last Wednesday evening. The occasion proved a very pleasant one.

In the ball game in Fletcher's field Sunday afternoon Pilot Knob defeated the "All Stars" from the Lead Belt by a score of 10 to 3.

Another of our boys has arrived home, after spending eleven months in Paris, Don Robson, of Graniteville, with Co. B, 132 Military Police.

Dr. W. S. Dearmont, President of the Cape Girardeau Normal, spent several days of the past week at Valley Inn resting and recuperating.

J. F. Martin has sold his farm, 117 acres, between Middlebrook and Graniteville, to J. H. Haven. Mr. Martin is thinking of removing west.

For Sale—A two-horse Park Wagon, holding twelve people, in good condition. WM. H. THOMSON, Valley Home, Arcadia, Mo.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Norman R. White, undertaker and embalmer, Caledonia, Mo., in this issue of the REGISTER. Mr. White has a motor hearse.

A dance at the Academy of Music Friday evening—the last of the season. Proceeds to be used in paying for the piano recently purchased for the hall. Everybody come.

Guess we have no kick on having to pay eighty cents a hundred for ice. A De Soto exchange says that several towns are paying a dollar a hundred, and Charleston is paying $1.25.

For Sale—A span of mules, four and five years old, weight about 900 or 950 lbs.; also wagon and harness; and complete set of household goods. J. T. SHY, Sabula, Mo.

The price of wood promises to be high this fall. Already some are asking $5 a cord, or $2.50 for a load of pole wood. That's from twenty-five to fifty per cent. more than it was a year ago.

There has been a noticeable increase in the number of red lights to be seen on the automobiles in the valley during the past few weeks. Previously not one car in six "sported" a tail light.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Long, who recently sold their big farm at Bellevue, are stopping at the Long home in Farmington. They may later go to California to reside.—Farmington News.

Dr. C. C. January, late of Reynolds county, has located in Bellevue, and will engage in the practice of medicine there. He is son to my old friend, R. I. January, and I certainly wish him well.

For Sale—Good Brood Mare, 10 Silver-Laced Wyandottes, 1 Rooster, 1 Brown Leghorn Rooster, Sausage Machine and Stuffer, Laundry Stove. CAROLINE HERMANN, formerly Henley farm, Pilot Knob.

They left Sunday afternoon for Edgehill, Mo., where they are spending this week with their parents and other relatives.—Farmington News.

For Sale—One Good Heavy Farm Wagon, one Good Team of Mules, 1 Horse, 1 Young Mare, One set of Single Harness. Apply to FRANK RENCHAUSEN, Pilot Knob, Mo.

Lost—From an automobile between Ironton and Bellevue Monday afternoon a Black Walrus traveling bag, containing clothes and valuable papers. A $10 reward will be paid for the return of the bag and contents to this office.

Mr. E. L. Cook has tendered his resignation as cashier of the Bank of Ironton for the purpose of accepting a position with the Merchants' and Miners' Bank at Flat River. The name of Mr. Cook's successor here has not yet been announced.

Mrs. Whit Warren of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. J. U. White of Flat River and Misses Lucille Thompson of Mann, Florence Bonesteel of Green Bay, Wis., and Esther McKinney of Ironton were out of town guests at the Black-Hunter wedding.—Bismarck Gazette.

J. W. Clarkson and Miss Jeanette and George, Jr., arrived in an automobile from Louisiana Sunday about noon. Accompanying them were Mrs. Emma Davis and daughters, Mrs. Getchel and Mrs. Capt. Easterly, of Neligh, Nebraska, who joined them at Little Rock, Arkansas.

Lodi News in Greenville Sun: "E. G. O'Bannon, who lives in Iron county, came over Friday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Friday. Mr. O'Bannon became very ill on the road and as soon as possible after his arrival, Dr. Myers was called, and we understand he is able to be up again."

Everett Percy arrived in Ironton last Friday after a year in France. He was recently discharged at Camp Dodge and expects to resume his former position with a hardware establishment at El Dorado, Kansas. He is apparently in perfect health and looks like army life agreed with him.

Jesse M. Hawkins returned Saturday night from a week's stay at the State Fair at Sedalia. Jesse says it was a great fair, probably the greatest ever held in the State, and of the vast assemblage in attendance he says he seemed to be the only "poor guy" in the bunch. Everybody else had "money to burn."

A number of Ironton people went to Bellevue last Friday evening to attend a reception given to the returned soldiers. An appropriate program was rendered and delicious refreshments served. The occasion was much enjoyed, but quite a heavy down-pour of rain marred the pleasure of the return trip.

While at work under an automobile Tuesday afternoon of last week Emmet Forshee had the misfortune to get a sliver of steel in one of his eyes. He was taken to Barnes Hospital in St. Louis that afternoon where, after an examination, it was stated there was grave danger of his losing the sight of the eye. We trust not.

Arch Clemonds was in town from Graniteville Monday and said the quarry was shut down that day because of the water supply being insufficient to supply the engines. A pipe was being laid to the old quarry, however, where there is an abundant supply of water, and it was expected to have everything running smoothly by Tuesday.

Wm. T. O'Neal of Franklany was in Ironton Sunday from Franklany. He reports everything very dull in his part of the Lead Belt, but in Flat River and Bonne Terre all men are being employed who apply. No one seems to know why the Leadwood mines, which have long borne the reputation of being the richest in the Lead Belt, are not being operated.

In "Oh, You Women!" John Emerson and Anita Loos tackle this great time problem and mould it into a film story that glows with humor and sympathy. It's a story of a soldier who, when he came home, found the men in the kitchen and the women in trousers! You'll laugh—and think—when you see "Oh, You Women!"—Adv.

Miss Orpha Davis arrived in Ironton Saturday from Warrensburg, Mo. She departed Saturday for Poplar Bluff to spend a couple of weeks with relatives and will then come to Ironton again. Miss Orpha has contracted to teach in Washington, Iowa, next year. Her many friends in the valley will be glad to know that she is continuing to be successful in the profession.

The Democratic women of Iron county completed an organization at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon by electing Mrs. F. P. Ake, chairman, Mrs. G. W. Hanson, secretary, and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, treasurer of the County Central Committee. Mr. W. R. Edgar was called on and made a timely address. An on-looker was heard to remark that it was the "best looking" political gathering he had ever seen.

Centerville Outlook: "J. A. Robinson of Edgehill has purchased the Long farm in Bellevue and will move thereto in a few days. Mr. Robinson owns one of the best farms in the northern part of the county, near Edgehill, where he has resided for many years. The Long farm contains more than 500 acres and is one of the best in Bellevue Valley. We regret to lose Mr. Robinson as an No. 1 citizen."

The railroad company recently had a man stationed at the railroad crossing north of the Ironton station keeping tab of the number of foot passengers and vehicles that went over the crossing in twenty-four hours. Another man kept tab at the Arcadia station. Whether this means that the company is considering putting in alarm bells or gates no one seems to know. But it probably indicates an innovation of some kind.

Ticket sales at the Ironton station last month were in excess of $1500. This, despite the fact that there is no night ticket office here and people traveling on night trains pay their fare on the train. Ironton never has had a square deal from the railroad. But our day is coming. Among other things we should insist right now on a night office being maintained. We are entitled to it and public convenience demands it.

A crowd of young people motored to Lake Killarney, near Arcadia, Sunday afternoon, for an outing. They took with them plenty of lunch which they enjoyed for supper. Those who went on this trip were Misses Marjorie Stroupe, Ida Mae Kennedy, Lucy Corrigan and Lucille Johnson, of Monett, Ark.; Messrs. Morton Wolfner, Noah and Leo LeBruyere and Paul Moran, of Bonne Terre.—Farmington News.

E. L. Purcell, Deputy Game and Fish Warden, was up from Illmo last week on official business. His visit was partly to do with the efforts made by certain St. Francois county fishermen to bring about the destruction of the Dam at Silver Mine. Mr. Purcell intimated that there was no likelihood of the dam being blown out as the provision for the passage of fish made by the owner fully met the requirements of the law. Madison county will heartily approve this attitude of the Game and Fish Department, believing it to be the only fair and sensible view to take of the matter.—Fredericktown Democrat-News.

On Monday of last week, in company with several of his old friends, I had the honor and pleasure of congratulating Mr. Anton Roehry upon the attainment of his seventieth birthday. He was a little surprised at our unannounced intrusion, but arose to the occasion, and for an hour or so we went back to the days when life was younger, and proved that the burden of years may rest lightly upon spirits unshaken. Of sturdy integrity and manhood, Mr. Roehry lives in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and the expression of our hope that he may see many another return of his natal day was given in sincerity.

The river (St. Francis) is very low here but it is a pure, running stream, where fishing continues fine. There are two good steel bridges across it at this point—one on the Piedmont road and one on the Williamsville road—20 miles to Piedmont and 12 to Williamsville. The last has just been greatly improved and is called a state road, built on the old road bed of the Holiday R. R. Close connections made via the auto jitna line with the Mo. Pac. at Williamsville, both ways. It is quite a lift to two suburban towns (Poplar Bluff and St. Louis) to thus have such close touch with Greenville. We expect to have two daily mails from here to Williamsville. At present we have to wiggle along with only one mail daily.—Greenville Sun.

Mr. John M. Malang, State Highway Superintendent, has sent word that he will be in Ironton Thursday, August 21, and at 7 o'clock A. M., that day will proceed from here over the proposed State Highway route to the south end of the county by way of Marble Creek and Brunot; returning the trip will be made over the road along the railway. Accompanying Mr. Malang will be the members of the Iron county court and other persons especially interested in the location of the proposed State Highway. After this trip of inspection it is said that definite announcement will be made as to what route will be designated as the State Highway. Mr. Malang will return to Ironton Friday afternoon on train 32 and at 3 o'clock will deliver an address at the courthouse. All persons are invited to be present and particularly those interested in good roads.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held in the Rome July 10, with a normal attendance.

"OH, YOU WOMEN!"

WITH ERNEST TRUEX AND LOUISE HUFF

"Pants won the War; Therefore Wear Pants"

Thus did the "new" women of Fremont, Pennsylvania slip a cog in their logic.

When they donned pants, leaped into the saddle, and galloped off into politics, they failed to reckon with a mere man.

Let other men knit and tend babies, but not Abe Jones! Back from France a hero, Abe found his town in the grip of a female political ring and his job in the hands of a trousered woman. Then he declared another war!

Here is a big, brilliant, timely picture that cuts deep into one of the gravest problems of our day—the problem of woman's place in the new world of reconstruction. What is her place there? Don't be sure you know until you see, "Oh, You Women!"

ARTHUR HUFF,

Clerk County Court.

Ironton, Mo., August 9, 1919.

Mrs. Kate L. Whitworth

Died at St. Louis, Mo., Friday, August 15, 1919, at 4:20 o'clock A. M., aged 48 years, 8 months and 5 days. The remains were brought to Ironton, and the funeral took place Sunday at 2:00 o'clock P. M., a large concourse of relatives and friends attending.

Deceased was the widow of the late P. W. Whitworth who departed this life in 1911. She was born the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Green, of Caledonia, and her life was, up to three years ago, spent in Washington and Iron counties. In 1896 she married and to the union was born a daughter, who survives her—Mrs. Paul Wheelahan, of Arcadia. P. W. Whitworth was for years a faithful and trusted official of Iron county whose taking off was a sorrow to his legion of friends, and his consort a faithful wife and loving mother. Both seemed to have promise of extended existence; but, "life's fitful fever" over, they are now sleeping side by side. To the bereaved family, I extend my heartfelt sympathy.

Card of Thanks.

We want to thank our friends for their many kindnesses shown us in the loss of our dear mother.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL WHEELAHAN,
O. E. WHITWORTH,
